Voice Your Choice Video Contest Premieres

Greensboro, NC ...Kids Voting North Carolina and the N.C. Center for Voter Education are teaming up to host the 2010 "Voice Your Choice Video Contest." North Carolina students will have an opportunity to show off their creative spirit by submitting 30-second videos, telling why voting is important. Entries will be posted online and winners will be distributed to television outlets across NC. All entries must be nonpartisan. The entry deadline is October 1, 2010. Winners will be announced by Monday, October 11, 2010.

Students are encouraged to use comedy, drama, animation, and/or music to creatively and effectively inspire all voters to go to the polls. The contest has two divisions: high school and college. High school and college classes as well as individual students may participate. Submissions may not contain any copyrighted material without the written consent of the copyright owner. Content must be nonpartisan and appropriate for audiences of all ages.

Entries can be sent on DVD, MiniDVD or DVCPro to:

Attn: Voice Your Choice
N.C. Center for Voter Education
3933 Arrow Dr., Suite 101
Raleigh, NC 27612

Or entries can be uploaded to a video-sharing site (such as YouTube), with the link emailed to entries@voiceworthy.com. Online entries must have an original, high-resolution copy on DVD available.

All entries must include the following information:

- Name
- Email address
- Daytime telephone number
- Mailing address
- Division (high school or college)
- Your school's name
